I have reviewed this version that came today through page 395 or so. I have added some edits and comments for the team to incorporate. I also checked to see if Charlotte's and James' previous comments were addressed and they largely were. Tagged those outstanding. At the same time as the team addresses my comments, I think this needs to get a thorough review from Nancy to make sure we have all of her thoughts as well as she has not done a deep dive into this one yet. So can you please have a look and provide us your feedback asap? You can assume that the team will be addressing the point I raised unless you hear otherwise from me/Stam.

Thanks.

Mark
